This annual event is a staple for TSA, giving its members an opportunity to showcase their work. The TSA is a state-wide non-profit organization that provides sculptors the opportunity to learn more about the art of sculpture and share their artistic vision with the general public. Deana Hinchcliff of the TSA board states, "The success of the arts resides not only with the artist, but with the relationships that are built in the communities. The Texas Sculpture Association is extremely excited about the upcoming Annual Membership Event at the Oak Cliff Cultural Center. It is a great opportunity for creative exposure in such an artistically eclectic community. We look forward to forging new relationships in the Oak Cliff community and in the arts community as a whole.”

Located in a historic storefront in the vibrant commercial district of Jefferson Avenue in Oak Cliff, the Oak Cliff Cultural Center opened its doors in August 2010. The facility was purchased and renovated by the City of Dallas through the 2003 Bond Program to function as a permanent City-owned arts center where residents and visitors of Oak Cliff could experience a variety of arts and cultural programs. The 5,000 sq. ft. storefront features a visual arts gallery and a dance studio/rehearsal space. The Oak Cliff Cultural Center is open Tuesday – Friday, 3:00-9:00 p.m., and Saturdays, 10:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.
